

City of Live Oak
Audit Selection Committee Meeting Minutes
September 30, 2024

The City of Live Oak Audit Selection Committee met Monday, September 30, 2024 at 4:00 p.m. in City Hall located at 101 SE White Ave., Live Oak, Florida 32064 for an Audit Selection Committee meeting. The following members were present: City Council President Matt Campbell, Mrs. Lynda Brown Owens, and Parks & Recreation Director Jason Furry. Also present, City Clerk John Gill and Finance Director Joanne Luther.

Committee Chairman Campbell called the meeting to order

Mrs. Lynda Brown Owens led the invocation, which was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Committee Chairman Campbell proceeded to discussion with committee action to select and recommend to the Live Oak City Council and auditing firm to perform auditing services for the city of Live Oak. Committee Chairman Campbell gave an overall score of 48 to Purvis & Gray, 48 to James Moore & Company, and a 47 to Powell & Jones Company according to the score card. Also, he gave the pros & cons for each individual company as well.

Committee Member Jason Furry gave an overall score of 48 to Purvis & Gray, 46 to James Moore & Company, and a 44 to Powell & Jones Company according to the score card. Also, he gave the pros & cons for each individual company.

Committee Member Lynda Brown Owens gave an overall score of 41 to Purvis & Gray, 42 to James Moore & Company, and a 38 to Powell & Jones Company according to the score card. Also, she gave the pros & cons for each individual company.

The total score for each respondent was; Purvis & Gray 137, James Moore & Company 136, and Powell & Jones Company 129. Committee Member Furry made a motion to recommend Purvis & Gray to the Live Oak City Council, which Committee Member Brown Owens seconded. The motion carried unanimously.

With there being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Councilmember Matt Campbell
Committee Chairman

Attest:
Mr. John Gill
City Clerk